

Please do not make any changes to the telephone privacy act. Our law in Indiana has proven to be effective. It has allowed us to not be harrassed by unwanted solicitators at any and all hours of the day. It does not need to be altered or changed and should be a matter to be decided by the citizens of each individual state. Thank You.